

Kyriacos Kakouris

Mr. Kakouris is an Economic Director at the Ministry of Finance of Cyprus. In 1990, after three years of working at the Cyprus Chamber of Commerce, he joined the Ministry of Finance. Since 2016 he has been heading the Directory of Administration and Finance. He is responsible for project financing, procurement issues, financial management and administration issues and the International Financial Organisations. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the EIB and Chairperson of the Ethics and Compliance Committee of the Bank. Also, he is a member of the Administrative Council of the Council of Europe Development Bank and Cyprus Deputy of International Development Association.

Mr. Kakouris graduated from the University of Athens with a Degree in Economics and he has an MA Economics from the Lakehead University in Canada.