

CONCLUSION

The Commonwealth Secretariat wishes to record its deep gratitude to Mr K.W.J. Topley, Chairman of the Seminar and Director of Education, Hong Kong, in which capacity he made available on a generous scale the services of his officers as key members of the seminar secretariat and management teams and the material resources of his department. We are also deeply grateful to Dr Keith Legg, in three capacities - as lead paper writer, seminar consultant and Director of the Hong Kong Polytechnic, and to his staff who supported his contributions to the seminar; to Dr L. Chandrakant, lead paper writer and seminar consultant, who spared time from a heavy programme at the Colombo Plan Staff College for Technician Education which he directs to place at the disposal of the seminar his unique knowledge of technician education in the region; and to the ILO and Mr R. Campbell for the preparation and presentation, respectively, of the third lead paper.

Turning to the secretariat and management teams, we would like to record our thanks to Mr R. Bray for his services as Seminar Manager which he performed with unflinching efficiency, attention to detail and good humour; to Mr J.C.H. Gillard, Chief Rapporteur and Liaison Officer, whose team produced instant and accurate records of the proceedings; to Mr J. Wong, Office Manager, whose team, like Mr Gillard's, often worked into the small hours of the morning; to Mr K.F. Leung, Social and Amenities Officer, whose attention to the delegates' needs for recreation and hospitality was universally enjoyed; to the Press Liaison Officer, Mr J.H. Evans, to whom a high quality of press, radio and television coverage was due; to Mr M. Yu, Assistant Office Manager, Mr G.A.V. Ribeiro, secretary to the management team, and Miss B. Lieu, Assistant Social and Amenities Officer; to rapporteurs and liaison officers Mr F.K. Chan, Mr C. Durkin, Mr R. Harper, Mr R.W. Vardy, Miss M. Lim, and Miss S. Im; to Miss Y. Lui, Miss N. Kwan, Miss S. Yum, Miss C. Leung, Miss W. Im, Miss L. Lee, Miss B. Lee, Miss Chan Yin Fan, Miss Wong Chi Yuen, Miss P. Hung, and all other office staff who assisted. The Commonwealth Secretariat could not have been better served with help in all these different functions.

Finally, we would like to thank the principals, education staff, industrialists, officials, managers and guides who provided hospitality or transport or placed their time at the disposal of participants, and took pains to show them what interested them most, to inform and explain, and to ensure that they left Hong Kong with as comprehensive and balanced an impression of its resources, achievement, and scenery as could be obtained in so short a time.
