ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The warm thanks of the Commonwealth Secretariat are due to the meeting's hosts, the Government of Kenya and the Kenya Polytechnic, for their hospitality, their arrangements for the meeting, and the services they provided. The reception given by the Honourable Taaitta Toweett, Minister for Education, on the first day of the meeting was greatly appreciated by all participants. Thanks are due in particular to the Permanent Secretary for Education (Mr. Gachathi) and his senior officials; to Mr. J.D. Mambo, Principal of the Kenya Polytechnic, who found time not only to play a full part as host but also to chair the meeting with conscientiousness and distinction; to the Polytechnic's Administrative Liaison Officer, Mr. R.P. Onyango, in whose hands arrangements for visits and excursions, transport, accommodation, supporting staff, and office services were carried out with great smoothness; to Miss F.S. Dar, Co-Secretary of the meeting, and her team of rapporteurs including other staff of the Department of Business Studies, who gave up both official and private time to produce faithful records of the proceedings, and to the shorthand, typing and duplicating staff; to Miss Mundara, Head of the Department of Institutional Management, for her excellent catering; and to other Heads of Departments and senior administrative staff of the Polytechnic who contributed to the success of the meeting.
