Public servants in Commonwealth governments, both elected and appointed, have invaluable experiences to exchange as they confront the task of government renewal. The Commonwealth Association for Public Administration and Management (CAPAM) is a newly established professional association for senior officials and managers in the public sector. CAPAM has been created to improve management in government through enhanced co-operation across the Commonwealth. Membership and other details are available from the Executive Director, CAPAM, c/o IPAC at the address above.
