

- 9.3.6 The Secretariat should collaborate with CPA in preparation of programmes for rational and effective utilisation of essential drugs through the preparation of national and regional formularies.

10. Acknowledgments

The CPA Consultants take this opportunity to express their appreciation to the member countries of the Commonwealth for their prompt response in providing material and data which made this report possible. Thanks are due to the following colleagues and their organisations for their generous co-operation and ready assistance:

Prof. K. Thairu, Commonwealth Secretariat, London
Miss Jane Cole, Commonwealth Secretariat, London
Mr. Desmond F. Lewis, Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, London
Mrs. A. Tcheknavorian-Asenbauer, UNIDO, Vienna
Dr. J.F. Dunne, WHO, Geneva
Miss A. Wehrli, WHO, Geneva
Ms. Aurelie von Wartensleben, UNCTAD, Geneva
Dr. Richard B. Arnold, IFPMA, Geneva
Mr. James C. Matthews, ABPI, London
Mr. Anthony A. Willis, ABPI, London
Mr. C.M. Pintaud, Sandoz AG, Basle.