

Acknowledgements

---

We are very grateful to a number of people and to the staff of the Commonwealth Secretariat who assisted in the preparation of this book.

Special thanks to the Lead Facilitator of the Commonwealth Working Group on Public Administration, Prof. Mushtaq Khan of the University of London, and all members of the Group: Hon. Minister Dr Motloheloa Phooko, Minister of Public Service, Kingdom of Lesotho; Mr Ngambo Fonjo Pierre Vincent, Secretary-General, Ministry of Public Service Reform, Cameroon; Mr Kizito Ballans, Director, Office of the President, Ghana; Ms Anna Brizan, Permanent Secretary, Department of Public Administration, Prime Minister's Office, Grenada; Mrs Masoloja Anastasia Motlomelo, Organisational Development Manager, Ministry of Public Service, Lesotho; Dr Joe Abah, Director-General, Bureau of Public Service Reforms, Nigeria; Mr Mohammed Afif, Secretary to the State, Cabinet Affairs and Civil Service, Seychelles; Mr Felton Thokozani Mhlongo, Under-Secretary, Ministry of Public Service, Swaziland; Mr Sankoela J. Mohoanyane, Director, Training and Development, Ministry of Public Service, Lesotho; Mr Columbus Awungjia Tamoh, Cameroon; Ms Gillian McIntyre, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Public Administration, Trinidad and Tobago; Ms Vashti Guyadeen, Personal Assistant to the Minister, Ministry of Public Administration, Trinidad and Tobago; Mr Richards, Director of Public Sector Reform, Trinidad and Tobago; and Dr Nelson Oppong of Oxford University (Rapporteur).

Sincere gratitude also goes to all the Commonwealth member countries that shared their case studies for inclusion in the book.

Roger Koranteng
Interim Head & Adviser
Public Sector Governance Unit
Governance and Peace Directorate
Commonwealth Secretariat